

PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

BURUNDI

---

Africa Network for Peace, Reconciliation, and Sustainable Development

Rev. Déogratias Maruhukiro

Fr. Déogratias Maruhukiro was the Director of the Center for Schoenstatt Fathers at Mont Sion Gikungu (Bujumbura, Burundi) from 2006 to 2011, where he initiated the Maria Arafasha Foundation, a foundation that is engaged for the promotion of Peace and Reconciliation. He is a PhD candidate at the University of Freiburg in Germany. Fr. Maruhukiro is the founder of the Africa Network for Peace, Reconciliation, and Sustainable Development (RAPRED-Girubuntu). (p.demar@schoenstatt.net)

CAMEROON

---

Catholic University of Central Africa

Prof. Claude-Ernest Kiamba

Claude-Ernest Kiamba holds a PhD in political Science from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Bordeaux. Former Electoral Adviser to the United Nations Operation in Ivory Coast and former Director of the Cabinet of the Minister of Communication and Relations with the Parliament of Congo-Brazzaville, he is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Social Sciences and Management of the Catholic University of Central Africa, where he assumed responsibilities as director of the master's program in Governance and Public Action. (ckiamba@yahoo.fr)

CANADA

---

St. Paul University

Dr. Jean-François Rioux

Jean-François Rioux has been a professor in conflict studies at Saint Paul University in Ottawa since 2002. After his Ph.D. in political science from Carleton University, he worked for the Canadian government and as a consultant in the field of nuclear arms control. After that he was Director of Research at the Raoul-Dandur and Chair of the University of Quebec in Montreal. At Saint Paul University, he has been the director of the School of Conflict Studies, and he now leads the Center for Research on Conflict. (jfrioux@ustpaul.ca)

Dr. Moda Dieng

Moda Dieng is an assistant professor in the School of Conflict Studies at Saint Paul University. He obtained a PhD in Political Science and an MA in Philosophy at the University of Toulouse. He works primarily on conflict resolution in Africa. (mdieng@uottawa.ca)

CÔTE D'IVOIRE

---

Catholic University of West Africa / University Unit of AbidjanRev. Dr. Gaston Ogui Cossi

Rev. Dr. Gaston Ogui Cossi is Professor of Christology at the Catholic University of West Africa (CUWA), University Unit of Abidjan. He is a doctor of systematic theology and holder of a master's degree in Conflict and Peace Management. He is head of the Department of Systematic Theology at CUWA, and is Director of the Doctoral School in the same University Unit. (gasog2005@yahoo.fr)

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO

---

Catholic University of Bukavu, Higher Institute for Peace and ReconciliationMsgr. Joseph Gwamuhanya

Msgr. Gwamuhanya received his PhD from the Pontifical Urban University. He was rector of the Catholic University of Bukavu from 2002-2010, during which time he served as an MP in the Democratic Republic of Congo's transitional government from 2003-2006. He has served on the leadership board of the Interuniversity Network of the Great Lakes Countries, and since 2011 has been overseeing the development of the Higher Institute for Peace and Reconciliation at the Catholic University of Bukavu. (jbgwamuhanya@gmail.com)

Dr. Naupess Kibiswa,

Dr. Kibiswa earned his PhD in Conflict Analysis and Resolution at Nova Southeastern University (Florida, USA). He is now a professor in the Democratic Republic of Congo's Catholic Universities in Kinshasa and Bukavu. His research and teaching interests include ethno-nationalism and conflict resolution; exploring tensions between peace and justice, peace and human rights, peace and democracy; balancing the promotion, protection and defense of both civil & political rights and socioeconomic rights as the genuine strategy for the development of Africa. (naupesskib@yahoo.fr)

Rev. Dr. Herve Muyo, O.M.I.

Fr. Hervé Muyo, O.M.I. is a professor of Peace Studies at the Catholic University of Bukavu. He has a Master's degree in Counseling Psychology from St. Cloud State University (Minnesota, USA) and a PhD in Conflict Analysis and Resolution from Nova Southeastern University (Florida, USA). Also, he is an Associate Professor at the National Pedagogical University and the Catholic University of Congo, both in Kinshasa. (herve.muyo@gmail.com)

Prof. Paul-Robain Namegabe

Paul-Robain Namegabe is a Professor of Public Law and Political Science at the Catholic University of Bukavu (UCB). He got a degree in Law from UCB, a Master's in Governance and Development from the University of Antwerp, and a PhD in Political Theory from the Luiss-Guido Carli in Rome. He is the Coordinator of Graduate Studies and the Director of the Expertise Center on Mining Governance at UCB. ([namegabep@ yahoo.fr](mailto:namegabep@ yahoo.fr))

Mr. Justin Nyorha

Justin Rudahindwa Nyorha holds a Master's degree in Peace and Conflict Studies, Media, Peace and Conflict Studies, from the University for Peace in Costa Rica. He is a teacher-researcher at the Catholic University of Bukavu where he teaches general sociology, sociology of conflicts, and education for peace. He is also the academic secretary of the Higher Institute for Peace and Reconciliation. (nyorha.rudahindwa@ucbukavu.ac.cd)

Catholic University of Congo, Cardinal Martino Panafrican Institute

Rev. Dr. Prof. Lievin Engbanda Lingonge

Rev. Dr. Prof. Lievin Engbanda Lingonge holds his PhD in Theology from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, Illinois. He also holds a post-doctoral certificate in Applied Theology from the School of Applied Theology in Berkeley, California. He has been an Associate Professor at Lisala University and a Visiting Professor at Sts. Peter and Paul Seminary in Lisala. He currently is the Academic Dean at the Cardinal Martino Panafrican Institute at the Catholic University of Congo. (ablienlin@gmail.com)

ETHIOPIA

---

Ethiopian Catholic Secretariat

Abba Hagos Hayish Fessuh, C.M.

Abba Hagos Hayish, C.M. holds his MA from Heythrop College in London. He is currently Secretary General of the Ethiopian Catholic Secretariat and is a board member of the Interfaith Council of Ethiopia. He has also been Executive Director of Caritas Ethiopia, Chairman of the Ethiopian Interfaith Forum for Development, Dialogue, and Action, and Vice-Rector, Treasurer, and Prefect of the Pontifical Ethiopian College in Vatican City. (hagoscmecssg@gmail.com)

Mr. Guelay Woldegiorghis

Guelay Woldegiorghis is the department head of the Justice and Peace Commission of the Ethiopian Catholic Secretariat. Prior to this position he worked as the Assistant Coordinator and as the Capacity Support Program Coordinator of the Social and Development Commission. He holds a postgraduate degree in project planning and management of development projects from the Catholic University of Eastern Africa and diplomas in Mission Studies (Cultural Anthropology), Theology, and Philosophy from Tangaza College.

(ecsjustice.peacedept@gmail.com)

FRANCE

---

International Federation of Catholic Universities

Prof. Luc Pasquier

Former executive officer of the Association of Catholic Universities of France (UDESCA), former Vice-Rector at Catholic University of the West (Angers, France) and member of the team of the presidency of the Catholic University of Lille, Luc Pasquier is a socio-anthropologist who specializes in Africa. He is a Senior Advisor with the International Federation of Catholic Universities. (luc.pasquier@gmail.com)

Mr. Paul Nayral de Puybusque

A former general, Paul Nayral de Puybusque, is on the faculty at the Catholic University of Lille and specializes in peace and security issues. He has been the head of the Catholic University of Lille's International Institute of Foresight for Innovative Ecosystems. He is also helping to lead the formation of peacebuilding network through IFCU, with whom he is a senior advisor. (paul.depuybusque@univ-catholille.fr)

GERMANY

---

Institut für Theologie und Frieden

Dr. Heinz-Gerhard Justenhoven

Heinz-Gerhard Justenhoven has been director of the Institut für Theologie und Frieden (ITF) in Hamburg, Germany since 1995. Since 2010, he has been chairman of ITF's Catholic Peace Foundation. He is an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Theology at the University of Freiburg. He has also been a Visiting Professor at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, United States, and at Hekima College in Nairobi, Kenya. (justenhoven@ithf.de)

GHANA

---

University of Cape Coast

Dr. Kenneth S. Aikins

Dr. Kenneth Shelton Aikins is a political scientist and development practitioner. He holds a PhD and MA in Political Science from the University of Kansas (USA), as well as an MPhil in Development Studies from the University of Cape Coast (UCC) in Ghana. At the Institute for Development Studies at UCC, he is a Senior Research Fellow and Coordinator of the Peace and Development Studies program. He has worked with the West Africa Peacebuilding Network, the National Peace Council and the Central Regional Peace Council. (kaikins@gmail.com)

Dr. Patrick Osei-Kufour

Patrick Osei-Kufour is a Senior Research Fellow in Development Studies at the Institute for Development Studies, University of Cape Coast Ghana. Currently, he is the convener for the Peace and Development Research Cluster at the Institute. His research works place emphasis on understanding poverty and institutional equity with particular application to decentralized local governance. He has worked with the United Nations Development Program, Ghana, the National Peace Council of Ghana and other faith-based organisations to build the capacity of stakeholders at national, district and local levels on insider mediation. (fuzzie251@gmail.com)

KENYA

---

Catholic Relief Services

Mr. John Katunga

John Katunga is currently the CRS Africa Technical Advisor for Peacebuilding and Justice. Before joining CRS, he worked as an Open Society Institute Africa Policy Scholar at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Washington, DC. He also served as the Acting Executive Director at the Nairobi Peace Initiative-Africa. Katunga received an MA in Conflict Transformation at Eastern Mennonite University (USA). (Katunga.John@crs.org)

Catholic University of Eastern Africa

Rev. Dr. Peter Gichure

Rev. Dr. Peter Gichure was formerly Theological Advisor for the Catholic Justice and Peace Commission and Associate Professor of Dogmatic Theology before becoming Director of the Centre for Social Justice and Ethics at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. He is also a former Executive Secretary of the Association of Catholic Universities and Higher Institutes of African and Madagascar. He has studied at the Catholic University of Leuven and the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies at the University of Notre Dame (USA). (pgichure@cuea.edu)

Mr. Richard A. Kakeeto, O.F.S.

Kakeeto Augustine Richard, O.F.S. is a PhD candidate in Social Transformation with specialization in Governance at Tangaza University College, Nairobi. He holds a Master of Arts in Peace Studies and International Relations from the Jesuit Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relations, Nairobi. He is the founding coordinator of the BA in Justice and Peace and the MA in Justice Peace and Cohesion at Catholic University of Eastern Africa (CUEA). He is currently assigned to the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences at CUEA. (rkakeeto@cuea.edu)

Dr. Genevieve Mwayuli

Dr. Mwayuli holds Master's and Doctoral degrees from Moi University (Kenya). She worked at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa (CUEA) 2002 to 2013; then at Garissa University College as Deputy Principal in charge of Academic and Student Affairs. She is now on the Faculty of Science at CUEA. She is a member of the Executive Board of the Forum for African Women Educationalists and Chairperson of its Kenya Chapter. She is a member of the Scientific Committee of the Association of Catholic Universities and Higher Institutes of Africa and Madagascar in charge of Research and Publications. (genemwayuli36@gmail.com)

Sr. Dr. Elizabeth Nduku

Sr. Dr. Elizabeth Nduku is a Senior Lecturer at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa (CUEA) in Nairobi. She holds a PhD and a Master's Degree in Educational Administration and Leadership from CUEA. She was Director of the Centre of Social Justice and Ethics of CUEA for seven years and currently is the Director of Globethics.net East Africa Programme. Her research interests are in the areas of ethics in higher education, leadership, social justice, Church social teachings and peace. (enduku@cuea.edu)

Sr. Dr. Anne Celestine Achieng Oyier Ondigo, F.S.J.

Sr. Dr. Anne Celestine Achieng Oyier Ondigo obtained her PhD in Political and Conflict Studies from the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in South Africa in 2016. She has two Masters, one in Peace Studies and International Relations from Hekima College and the other in English Linguistics from the University of Nairobi, both in Kenya. She is currently a Lecturer in the Center for Social Justice and Ethics at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. (aachieng0106@gmail.com)

Rev. Dr. Patrick Thawale

Fr. Thawale is a diocesan priest from the Archdiocese of Lilongwe in Malawi. He has his PhD in Pastoral Theology and is currently a Lecturer in the Theology Faculty at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. He is the Outgoing Executive Secretary of the Association of Catholic Universities and Higher Institutes of Africa and Madagascar. (patrick.thawale@yahoo.com)

Mr. Eugene Wirba, Lecturer

Mr. Wirkwajie Eugene Wirba is a Lecturer at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa in Nairobi. He also works as a freelance peacebuilding consultant and researcher, especially with grassroots organizations and secondary schools. He holds an MA in Peace Studies and International Relations from Hekima University College and also has a BTh and a BPhil. (euginewirba@yahoo.com)

Hekima College

Dr. Toussaint Kafarhire, S.J., Lecturer

Dr. Toussaint Kafarhire, S.J. holds his PhD in Political Science from Loyola University Chicago in the USA. He is currently a lecturer at the Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relations. (toussaint.kafarhire@hekima.ac.ke)

Dr. Elias Omondi Opongo, S.J.

Dr. Elias Omondi Opongo, S.J. is the Director of the Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relations and the regional coordinator of the Africa Forum for Catholic Social Teaching. He holds a PhD in Peace and Conflict Studies from the University of Bradford (UK) and an MA in International Peace Studies from the University of Notre Dame. His research focuses in the areas of transitional justice and post conflict reconstruction, state building, and community peacebuilding. (eliasomondi@gmail.com)

Dr. Gaspar Sunhwa, S.J.

Dr. Gaspar Sunhwa, S.J. obtained his PhD from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California. From then to now, he has held many positions within the East African Jesuits and is presently Professor of Theology and Political Science at Hekima College in Nairobi. (gaspar.sunhwa@hekima.ac.ke)

Dr. Kifle Wansamo, S.J.

Dr. Kifle Wansamo, S.J. holds a BA in Philosophy, a BA in Theology, a STL in Biblical Theology, and a PhD in Politics. He is the Vice Rector of the Hekima University College in Nairobi, and the Deputy Director of the Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relations, where he also teaches full time. (kifle.wansamo@hekima.ac.ke)

Kenyatta University

Dr. Susan Waiyego

Waiyego holds a PhD from the School of Security and Policy Studies at the University of Pau (France) and is currently teaching at Kenyatta University in the departments of History, Peace and Security and International Relations. Her research interests are security, gender and governance. (swaiyego2003@yahoo.com)

Tangaza University

Rev. Dr. Lennoxie Nafuma Lusabe, C.M.

Rev. Lennoxie Nafuma Lusabe, C.M. holds a Master's in Christian Ethics from Catholic Theological Union, Chicago; a diploma in law (Paralegal Studies) from the Kenya School of Law, Nairobi; a certificate as Third Party Neutral (TPN) from the Canadian Institute of Conflict Resolution, Ottawa; a PhD in Canon Law from the University of Ottawa (Canada); and a JCD in Canon Law from St. Paul University (Canada). He is a lecturer at Tangaza University. (lusa089@uottawa.ca)

Ms. Rita Mazzocchi

Ms. Mazzocchi has been a biochemist, a lawyer, an administrator, and a humanitarian worker and is now working toward a PhD at Tangaza University College: Social Transformation. She has worked in Australia, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, South Sudan, and Sudan. Presently, she also works for the Plan International Regional Office based in Kenya as a Horn of Africa Drought and Humanitarian Response Policy and Advocacy Advisor. (ritaundp@yahoo.co.uk)

Dr. Reginald Nalugala, Professor of Social Transformation

Dr. Reginald Maudlin Nalugala holds a PhD in Social Transformation from Oxford Centre for Mission Studies (UK). He has been connected with several international development agencies, including CRS, Misereor, Oxfam, Plan International, Jesuit Refugee Services, and the UN High Commission for Refugees. He is currently a Professor of Social Transformation at Tangaza University in Nairobi. His current research interests are African democracies and causes of conflicts in Africa. (reg.nanales@gmail.com)

MOZAMBIQUE

---

Catholic University of Mozambique

Sr. Anna Fontana

Anna Fontana is an Ursuline sister. She holds a master's in Communication for Development from Catholic University of Mozambique (UCM). She has been working in Mozambique since 2003 teaching and engaging in pastoral ministry. She is currently Coordinator of St. Augustine Research Centre at UCM. (anna.fontana@ucm.ac.mz)

Mr. Samuel Simango

Samuel Simango has been linked to the process of teaching and learning since 1978 first as a teacher of secondary education in the early days of national independence. He teaches at the Catholic University of Mozambique where he coordinates the course on Political Science and International Relations at the Faculty of Economics and Management. He is dedicated to research and debates on matters related to Peace and Reconciliation in Mozambique. (samuelsimango2006@gmail.com)

NIGERIA

---

Catholic Institute of West Africa

Rev. Dr. Edward Obi, M.S.P.

Fr. Edward Obi, M.S.P., earned a PhD in Social/Theological Ethics at the Catholic University of Leuven. He is a Lecturer in Moral Theology at the Catholic Institute for West Africa, Port Harcourt. He is also Executive Director of Gas Alert for Sustainable Initiative, Executive Secretary of the Niger Delta Catholic Bishops' Forum, and national coordinator of an environmental coalition, NACGOND, and Board Chairman of Dawn in the Creeks Ltd. (edyobi@gmail.com)

SOUTH SUDAN

---

Catholic University of South Sudan

Rev. Dr. Stephen Ameyu

Rev. Dr. Stephen Ameyu Martin is a diocesan priest with the Catholic diocese of Torit, South Sudan. Rev. Ameyu is a part-time Lecturer and Academic Secretary at the Catholic University of South Sudan and a Professor in St. Paul's Major Seminary in Juba, where he also served as the Dean of the School of Theology. He holds a PhD in Theology from the Pontifical Urban University in Rome. (samey2011@gmail.com)

Ms. Loes Lijnders

Loes Lijnders is a cultural anthropologist and development sociologist who has lived and worked in South Sudan since 2009. She has held teaching positions in both the Catholic University of South Sudan and the University of Juba. She is currently acting director of the Catholic University of South Sudan's Institute for Justice and Peace Studies. (loeslijnders@hotmail.com)

Rev. Basilio Lukudu

Fr. Basilio Lukudu is the Youth Chaplain at the Catholic Archdiocese of Juba and a lecturer at the Catholic University of South Sudan. He holds an MA in Peace Studies and International Relations from the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. He also holds an MA in Development Studies from Uganda Martyrs University, and concluded a post-graduate diploma in Project Management and Administration from the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. (lukbasil@yahoo.com)

Rev. Dr. Mathew Pagan

Rev. Dr. Mathew Pagan is a diocesan priest with the Catholic Diocese of Malakal, South Sudan. He is the Vice-Chancellor of the Catholic University of South Sudan. Prior to this he was the coordinator of the Justice and Peace Commission at the Diocese of Malakal. He holds a PhD in Canon Law from the Pontifical Urban University. (mathewpagan@gmail.com)

UGANDA

---

Uganda Episcopal Conference

The Most Reverend John Baptist Odama

Archbishop Odama of the Gulu Diocese was named to his position in 1999, and he has served as the Chairperson of the Uganda Episcopal Conference since 2010. Prior, he was Chairperson of the Acholi Religious Leaders Peace Initiative. In 2012, Archbishop Odama was recognized with World Vision International's Peace Prize.

Gulu University

Dr. Daniel Komakech

Dr. Daniel Komakech is a Senior Lecturer and Former Director, Institute of Peace and Strategic Studies, Gulu University, Uganda. He is the Network-Plus Regional Representative, Eastern Africa Resilience and Innovation Lab, Resilient Africa Network, School of Public Health, College of Health Sciences, Makerere University. He has been a Reader and Senior Fellow with United Nations Mandated University for Peace in Costa Rica. (d.komakech@gu.ac.ug)

Dr. Aloysius T. Malagala

Dr. Malagala is a Senior Lecturer at the Institute of Peace and Strategic Studies, Gulu University, Uganda. He holds a PhD and LLM in International Human Rights Law; a Licentiate in Civil Law; and a Post-Graduate Diploma in International Protection of Human Rights in Peoples' Identity. He has conducted research for global development partners such as UNICEF, UNDP, and USAID. (aloyusmalagala@googlemail.com)

Uganda Martyrs University

Mr. Lino Ika

Mr. Ika Lino holds an MA in Sustainable Urban Governance and Peace Studies from the United Nations Mandated University for Peace in Costa Rica. He has over four years' experience in Civil Society programming and has interest in research and training in the field of governance, food security, conflict management and peacebuilding, and development. He also worked as a Country Associate Director for Karamoja Cluster Project. Currently, he is a Lecturer of Governance and Peace Studies at Uganda Martyrs University. (lika@umu.ac.ug)

Ms. Susan Kijjagulwe

Ms. Kijjagulwe holds her MA in International Law and Settlement Disputes from the University for Peace in Costa Rica. She is currently an Assistant Lecturer in the School of Arts and Social Sciences at Uganda Martyrs University, teaching in the areas of human rights, public international law, and law, justice, and constitutionalism. (skijjagulwe@umu.ac.ug)

Prof. Michael Mawa, Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs

Prof. Mawa is an Associate Professor in the field of Development Studies, Human Development, and Human Rights. He also serves Uganda Martyrs University as Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs. (mmawa@umu.ac.ug)

Dr. Denis Musinguzi

Dr. Denis Musinguzi is a Senior Lecturer and Head, Department of Governance and Peace Studies at Uganda Martyrs University. Dr. Musinguzi holds a PhD in Peace and Governance from Uganda Martyrs University. His teaching and research interests are in the areas of peacebuilding and transitional justice, human rights, public policy, development and youth empowerment. Dr. Musinguzi has served as a consultant for Oxfam Novib; Plan International, Uganda; and SOS Uganda. (denislucky@gmail.com)

Rev. Prof. Maximiano Ngabirano

Rev. Ngabirano is Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences at Uganda Martyrs University. (mngabirano@umu.ac.ug)

Ms. Caroline Papanu

Caroline Papanu is a Teaching Assistant at Uganda Martyrs University (UMU) in the Institute of Ethics and the Department of Development Studies. She is an MA candidate reading Refugees and Migration Studies at UMU. (papanu@umu.ac.ug)

University of the Sacred Heart

Rev. Prof. Callisto Locheng, A.J.,

Prof. Locheng, A.J. is Dean of Faculty at the University of the Sacred Heart in Gulu, Uganda. Before coming to Gulu he worked at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa as Lecturer, Head of Department, and Dean of Faculty. Currently he is also Lecturer of Philosophy at Alokolum National Major Seminary in Gulu, an affiliate College of the Pontifical Urbaniana University in Rome. He is Chairman of the Board of Higher Education Students Financing Board of the Republic of Uganda. (clocheng@ush.ac.ug)

Rev. Dr. Jino O. Mwaka

Fr. Jino O. Mwaka is a priest of the Archdiocese of Gulu and is the Vice Chancellor for the newly launched and inaugurated University of the Sacred Heart Gulu. Fr. Jino is an alumnus of Walsh and Kent State Universities in Ohio, Pontifical University Urbaniana (by affiliation), and Makerere University. (frjino@ush.ac.ug)

Mr. Bruno Boniface Onencan

Mr. Onencan is Acting Assistant Academic Registrar for the University of the Sacred Heart in Gulu. Formerly, he worked in the Library Department. He has also been Enrollment Officer at Ministry of Internal Affairs Kampala, Personalized Social Support Assistant at Handicap International Uganda, Behavior Change Communication Assistant at American Refugee Committee International Uganda, Update Officer at Electoral Commission Uganda, Field Officer at Health Integrated Development Organization Gulu, Education Program Officer at Comboni Samaritans of Gulu, and Social Worker at Comboni Samaritans of Gulu. (bbonencan@ush.ac.ug)

UNITED STATES

---

Duquesne University

Dr. Anna Floerke Scheid

Anna Floerke Scheid, PhD is an Associate Professor of Theology at Duquesne where she teaches interdisciplinary courses in theological ethics through the theology department, the Center for African Studies, and the Peace, Justice, and Conflict Resolution Certificate program. Her research interests include the ethics of political resistance, religious ethics and warfare, African theologies of inculturation, and transitional justice, with particular attention to post-conflict forgiveness and reconciliation. (scheid@duq.edu)

Georgetown University

Dr. David Hollenbach, S.J.

Dr. David Hollenbach is Pedro Arrupe Distinguished Research Professor in the Walsh School of Foreign Service and Senior Fellow at the Berkley Center for Religion, Peace and World Affairs at Georgetown University, Washington, DC. Prior, he held the University Chair in Human Rights and International Justice at Boston College. His teaching and research deal with human rights, theories of justice, religious and ethical responses to humanitarian crises, and religion in political life, approached in a way shaped by Catholic social thought, contemporary theology, moral philosophy, and social science approaches. He has taught often at Hekima University College in Nairobi, Kenya. (david.hollenbach@georgetown.edu)

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Mr. Stephen Hilbert

Steve Hilbert is the Foreign Policy Advisor for Africa and Global Development Issues for the Office of International Justice and Peace at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. He has worked on policy issues such as South Sudan, the conflict in the Great Lakes Region and in the Central African Republic, the Global Food Crisis and on the reform and funding of U.S. international assistance. He worked for many years with CRS and was involved in development and peacebuilding projects in Mauritania, Morocco, Rwanda, The Gambia, Cameroon, and India. He holds his MA in International Studies from Columbia University in New York. (shilbert@usccb.org)

University of Notre Dame

Dr. George A. Lopez

George A. Lopez is the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., Chair Emeritus in Peace Studies at the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies, the University of Notre Dame (USA). He came to the University in 1986 as a founding faculty member of the Kroc Institute. Lopez created and has served as Director of the Kroc Institute's annual Summer Institute on Teaching Peace in the 21st Century since its inception in 2009. This program has assisted the development of peace research and studies programs in over 90 higher education institutions across five continents. From September 2013 –July 2015 he was the Vice President of the Academy for International Conflict Management and Peacebuilding at the United States Institute of Peace, Washington, DC. (glopez@nd.edu)

Dr. Caesar A. Montevecchio

Caesar A. Montevecchio holds a PhD in systematic theology from Duquesne University. He is currently a Research Associate with the Catholic Peacebuilding Network's secretariat housed at the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies in the Keough School of Global Affairs, the University of Notre Dame (USA). Previously, he was an Instructor of Religious Studies at Mercyhurst University in Erie, Pennsylvania. (cmonteve@nd.edu)

Prof. Gerard F. Powers

Gerard Powers is director of Catholic Peacebuilding Studies at the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies in the Keough School of Global Affairs, the University of Notre Dame (USA). He is also Coordinator of the Catholic Peacebuilding Network. He is formerly Director of the Office of International Justice and Peace of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, and was also a foreign policy advisor in the same office. He holds an MA in Theology and a JD, both from Notre Dame. (gpowers1@nd.edu)

University of San DiegoDr. William Headley, C.S.Sp.

William R. Headley, C.S.Sp., PhD is a sociologist, counselor and Catholic priest member of the Congregation of the Holy Spirit. He has a broad background in justice, peace and international aid with experience in nearly 80 countries. Fr. Headley is presently a Professor of Interreligious Peace Studies, Kroc School of Peace Studies, University of San Diego. He holds a joint appointment as Adjunct Special Professional Faculty Member in the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies, University of Notre Dame, servicing the Catholic Peacebuilding Network. (wheadley@sandiego.edu)

ZAMBIA

---

Zambia Catholic UniversityMr. Simson Mwale

Simson Mwale is the Director of the Institute of Peace and Conflict Studies of the Zambia Catholic University in Kalulushi, Zambia. He previously worked at the Symposium of Episcopal Conferences of Africa and Madagascar Secretariat in Accra, Ghana; and the Jesuit Centre for Theological Reflection in Lusaka, Zambia. His academic orientations are in philosophy, theology, international human rights law, communication for development, population studies, and peace and conflict studies. (simsonmwale@yahoo.com)

Rev. Dr. Obino Mulenga

Rev. Dr. Obino Mulenga is Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the Zambia Catholic University and has a Vatican portfolio as Ecclesiastical Assistant (chaplain of Mijarc World, an international Catholic and agriculture Youth Movement). He served as Registrar and Senior Lecturer for the Zambia Catholic University prior to being appointed to the current position. He holds a PhD in Clinical Psychology. (obchishala@gmail.com)

Mr. Philip N. Phiri

Philip Phiri has a licentiate in Theology from the Gregorian University in Rome, and acquired a postgraduate Master's degree in Communication for Development from the University of Zambia. Mr. Phiri has worked in various positions in the Church and in civil society organizations, which include lecturing theology at St. Dominic's Major Seminary and working as Director of Caritas in the North-Western Region (Solwezi Diocese) in Zambia. Currently, Mr. Phiri is working as Dean of Students and Lecturer in the Faculty of Social Sciences at the Zambia Catholic University. (pnphilip3@gmail.com)