Closing suggestions

Thursday 9th Nov. 2017

WAY FORWARD

- Review the approaches we have been using in teaching peace studies and the extent to which we are responding to the African condition.
- Joint supervisions of students.
- Common Publications/ Collaborative publications in bilingual nature
- Develop tools of assessment for the impact of the peace programmes we are offering.

WAY FORWARD

- Strategies for advocacy at the AU , EAC and other regional bodies that provide accreditation of NGOs
- Collaborative projects that allow for collective fundraising...
- Scholarship opportunities across campuses
- Help in international accreditation of programmes

WAY FORWARD

- Collaboration with government institutions and regional government bodies.
- Create an early warning and assessment of the Region--- generate indicators, and propose actions and responses

Self assessment form

How are we going to report about our work to ourselves?

- Is the proposed collaboration viable?
- Yes it was....could it be possible that a few more PhD students could be allowed to participate...
- WE ARE RESOLVING TO CONTINUE IN A COLLABORATIVE MANNER.

KEEPING OURSELVES TOGETHER

- There is already some collaboration taking place.
- We need a light structure that would continue to hold us together.
- The steering committee will keep together.
- Elias and Richard will keep the coordinating going.
- CPN will provide the name and shield for the group.
- Increase women representation in the team

Widening the Steering Committee

When next are able to get together?

- Probably in 2 years time
- We could organise more regular virtual meetings...
- In Ethiopia the church is expected to provide responses ... This networking should be continued.
- Create a facebook page for the working group..
- What about those academicians who are also in civil society ? What about academically oriented civil society groups?
- Invite more Bishops to participate at the next conference.
