Joint statement by Mennonites and Catholics on Violence

The Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and the Mennonite World Conference representatives met in Rome in October 2007 to prepare theological reflections that Mennonites and Catholics, committed to overcoming violence, might affirm together as a witness to peace in the ecumenical context. The document entitled: "A Mennonite and Catholic Contribution to the World Council of Churches' Decade to Overcome Violence," is now available at: <http://www.bridgefolk.net/theology/>.

Statement on Islamic-Catholic Committee meeting, Rome, June, 2008

The Islamic-Catholic Liaison Committee met in June 2008 to discuss the theme "Christians and Muslims as Witnesses of the God of Justice, of Peace and of Compassion in a World Suffering from Violence". The full statement on the meeting can be found at Zenit.org: <http://www.zenit.org/article-22908?l=english>.

A Vatican View of the Global Food Crisis, June 3, 2008

Pope Benedict XVI spoke to the World Food Security Summit on June 3. In his message he laid out the moral and macroeconomic principles of the world hunger problem saying that hunger and malnutrition were unacceptable in a world that has sufficient levels of agricultural production and resources. According to the Catholic News Service (CNS) the pope spoke of structural changes needed in the global agricultural economy. Those finer points were examined in a briefing paper produced by the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace. To read the full article go to: <http://www.catholicnews.com/data/stories/cns/0803022>.

If you have information on Catholic peacebuilding initiatives, announcements, opportunities, or calls for papers for our next newsletter please send to cpn@ND.EDU for consideration. CPN is dedicated to members informing members about Catholic peacebuilding efforts and initiatives.

The Catholic Peacebuilding Network (CPN) is a voluntary network of practitioners, academics, clergy and laity from around the world which seeks to enhance the study and practice of Catholic peacebuilding, especially at the local level. The CPN aims to deepen bonds of solidarity among Catholic peacebuilders, share and analyze “best practices,” expand the peacebuilding capacity of the Church in areas of conflict, and encourage the further development of a theology of a just peace. While it is a Catholic network, the CPN believes that authentic and effective Catholic peacebuilding involves dialogue and collaboration with those of other religious traditions and all those committed to building a more just and peaceful world.
